NEW YEAR, NEW CATALOGUE, NEW PRODUCTS

Kicking off 2011 as it means to go on, leading multi-channel supplier Screwfix will launch the latest edition of its coveted catalogue with the inclusion of over 1,000 new products.

Out now, the new catalogue brings together top hotspot deals, great savings on seasonal ranges and innovative new products – just what the tradesmen expect from Screwfix's latest offering.

Catalogue 104 feature new ranges from leading brands across the industry, including DeWalt, Metabo, CMT, Grohe, Roofer's Choice and Indesit, ensuring it will be the essential guide for the professional tradesman and serious DIYers alike this year.

Painting & Decorating

Tradesmen looking for job-specific product will find the extended range of No Nonsense paints and varnishes a new year bonus, whilst the Dulux Kitchen & Bathroom paint and Ronseal wood paints mean painters and decorators won't be left high and dry this spring.

Kitchens & Bathrooms

With new designs of Franke sinks, Indesit appliances including microwaves, hobs and ovens, solid wood worktops in oak, walnut and beech and new Swirl mixer taps on offer, tradesmen looking to support New Year kitchen re-fits will find plenty to inspire even the most challenging of chefs.

And Screwfix's bathroom lines are still top of the range, with Swirl and Grohe leading the field of new designs. Aqualisa energy-saving showers and the chic black gloss

Triton Tamas Shower are also welcome additions to the range of bathroom products in the new catalogue.

Power Tools

Tradesmen will also feel the force of the extensive range of power tools available, with a new lightweight 10.8V Li-ion range from DeWalt that is ideal for tackling tricky jobs in tight spaces. Featuring a Drill Driver, Screw Driver and Impact Driver, the compact range offers the perfect partner whether you're assembling furniture, installing air conditioning and central heating systems, or fixing metal switch and control boxes.

Air tools by Metabo also join the range of products in the catalogue, as do Mitre Saws and Cordless Jigsaws from Evolution. And the new range of paint paddle mixers from Berg, Tectool and Tecmix will make it a great year for those handling materials from paint and plaster through to screed and cement.

Security Products

When looking to put safety first in the New Year, tradesmen will find a significant selection of new security products. From a brand new range of Swann CCTV appliances, to additions to an extensive collection of smoke and burglar alarms from brands including First Alert, FireAngel and GE, Screwfix has got it covered when it comes to staying safe.

The new catalogue also includes Yale Euro Cylinder Locks with anti-pick and anti-drill technology to protect your prized possessions. With police preferred "Secure by Design" accreditation and a 10 year manufacturers guarantee, the innovative locks are welcome additions to the catalogue and a tradesman's tool kit.

John Mewett, Marketing Director at Screwfix, comments: "Whatever their resolutions going into the new year, we are confident that, with its huge range of products with massive savings, deals and promotions, this catalogue will be an essential addition to the tradesman's library.

"Along with the host of new innovative products and designs, we hope that our great value prices on top quality products will continue to make it easier for tradesmen and serious DIYers to achieve results to be proud of – no matter what the task.”
