HUGE SAVINGS AND NEW PRODUCTS IN THE LATEST SCREWFIX CATALOGUE

With 1,800 new products added, and hundreds of price cuts across its ranges, the new autumn catalogue from trade supplier Screwfix is packed full of the latest trade essentials, all at great prices.

Available from 5 September the catalogue features key additions from leading brands such as DeWalt, Bosch, Stanley and Spear and Jackson to name but a few.

Innovative screws

Velocity Multi-Use Screws are a new and innovative inclusion to Screwfix's renowned screws range. They can be used in a variety of materials such as sheet metal, PVCu, softwood and hardwood, and are available in 35 different size variations. These screws also aid quick installation and have exceptional pull out resistance, providing tradesmen with high levels of work performance.

Top-of-the-range power tools

Tough on the outside and with intelligent technology on the inside, the exclusive DeWalt 14.4V XR range, boasts extreme run time, increased efficiency and improved performance, making it an exciting addition to the catalogue. The 10.8V ranges from Bosch and DeWalt have also been extended. DeWalt has added detectors, cameras, torches and reciprocating saws to its range, and Bosch has introduced a four piece kit with impact driver, angle driver, drill driver and multi cutter, plus a reciprocating saw and an inspection camera.

Essential hand tools

New to Screwfix's hand tool collection, are the Stanley carbide blades. For use in the classic Stanley knife, these blades are made from tungsten and have a long life span. Specialist spirit levels for trade specific jobs from Stabila are also featured in the hand tool range, along with a new line of tool belts, bags and pouches from trade favourite Carl Kammerling.

Digging deep

Insulated digging tools from Spear and Jackson have been introduced to Screwfix's landscaping section. Certified to the BS 8020:2002 standard, they provide a safe option for tradesmen when digging near cables in the garden. The polyfibre contractor selection of digging tools, also from Spear and Jackson are another new addition. These tools are resistant to oil, chemicals and water, are lightweight and fully forged, making them ideal for the busy contractor.

Super sealants

A selection of adhesive products from Mapei, make their debut to the catalogue. From tile, wall and floor grout, to waterproof adhesives and colour match grout, these new products complement the existing range of adhesives available to the trade. Popular with painters and decorator, Frog Tape has also been introduced to the new catalogue, as well as No Nonsense Mighty Strength Adhesive and Instant Shower silicone, which turns water resistant in an hour after application.

Other top brands available at Screwfix

Also new in this catalogue are portable heating solutions from leading brand Glenn Dimplex, a selection of lever handles from Carlise Brass, and an exclusive range of traditional taps from Fosse and Stratton.
